WELCOME

Congratulations on qualifying for the 2014 National Championships!

The Dallas Ultimate Association (DUA) is proud to partner with USA Ultimate to bring you the National Championships. The DUA has existed for over sixteen years running multiple leagues year round and we also help local ultimate players & teams to compete. Dallas area club, league, college, and high school players will be working hard as volunteers to help you enjoy a great tournament experience.

The Championships will be held at the FC Dallas Sports Complex in Frisco, TX, the premiere field location in North Texas and home of Dallas's Major League Soccer team. Bring footwear to support both natural and artificial turf, and expect lows in the 50s and highs in the 70s.

The FC Dallas Sport Complex is surrounded by restaurants within walking distance and close to many more. We'll supply you with details on area restaurants and nightlife, including those that offer discounts to competitors. If you have some spare time, we'll also give you a visitor guide for area sight-seeing.

All of our volunteers, without whom this event would not be possible, are eager to assist you with any tournament needs, so please let us know how we can help.

We wish you the best of luck!

ULTIMATE IN 10 SIMPLE RULES

- 1. THE FIELD: A rectangular shape with end zones at each end. A regulation field is 70 yards by 40 yards, with end zones 25 yards deep.
- 2. INITIATE PLAY: Each point begins with both teams lining up on the front of their respective end zone line. The defense throws (“pulls”) the disc to the offense. A regulation game has seven players per team.
- 3. SCORING: Each time the offense completes a pass in the defense’s end zone, the offense scores a point. Play is initiated after each score.
- 4. MOVEMENT OF THE DISC: The disc may be advanced in any direction by completing a pass to a teammate. Players may not run with the disc. The person with the disc (“thrower”) has ten seconds to throw the disc. The defender guarding the thrower (“marker”) counts out the stall count.
- 5. CHANGE OF POSSESSION: When a pass is not completed (e.g. out of bounds, drop, block, interception), the defense immediately takes possession of the disc and becomes the offense.
- 6. SUBSTITUTIONS: Players not in the game may replace players in the game after a score and during an injury timeout.
- 7. NON-CONTACT: No physical contact is allowed between players. Picks and screens are also prohibited. A foul occurs when contact is made.
- 8. FOULS: When a player initiates contact on another player a foul occurs. When a foul disrupts possession, the play resumes as if the possession was retained. If the player committing the foul disagrees with the foul call, the play is redone.
- 9. SELF-OFFICIATING: Players are responsible for their own foul and line calls. Players resolve their own disputes.
- 10. SPIRIT OF THE GAME: Ultimate stresses sportsmanship and fair play. Competitive play is encouraged, but never at the expense of respect between players, adherence to the rules, and the basic joy of play.

COMMON ULTIMATE TERMS

BREAKMARK – a throw made to other side of the field from what is being forced by the marker

BRICK – the spot where play may be initiated when a pull lands out of bounds, typically 15 or 20 yards from the front of the offense's end zone and in the center of the field (yardage varies based on individual tournament rules); players have the option of making this call or taking the disc on the sideline closest to where it lands

CALLAHAN – a defensive score, occurs when a defender catches the disc in the end zone he or she is attacking

CUP – the wall of defenders that surround the thrower in a zone defense; the wall typically consists of 3 players, but variations with 2 or 4 defenders are also common

FLICK – forehand, thrown outside, away from the handler's body

FORCE – side of the field to which throws should be contained; the marker will attempt to take away throws to one part of the field and is said to be "forcing" throws to go up in a certain direction

GREATEST – a jump, throw, catch combination that occurs when the disc is out-of-bounds, but a player jumps from in-bounds, catches the disc and successfully throws it back in-bounds to a teammate

HAMMER – an overhead throw that starts above the shoulders where the disc turns over in the air and lands upside-down

HUCK – a long throw

POACH – a defensive decision to leave a designated one-on-one matchup, usually temporarily, to clog a cutting lane or help defend a player other than the original

PULL – the "kick-off" of each point in which the defensive team throws the disc from their own end zone down the field toward the offensive team

STALL – the 10-second count for which a player is allowed to maintain possession of the disc; the opposing, defensive player must count the 10-seconds aloud; a "stall" occurs if the disc is held for more than the 10-second count

STRIP – occurs when a disc is knocked out of a player's hands after they have stopped rotation and achieved possession

10 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT SPIRIT OF THE GAME™

1. THE GOLDEN RULE: TREAT OTHERS AS YOU WOULD WANT TO BE TREATED.

Spirited games result from mutual respect among opponents. Assume the best of your opponent. Give him or her the benefit of a doubt. You would want the same for yourself. But if you are thick-skinned, do not assume that your opponent is. Maybe you should think of this rule as, “treat others as you would have them treat your mother.”

2. CONTROL: SOTG TAKES REAL EFFORT.

SOTG is not just some abstract principle that everyone adopts and then games run smoothly without effort. Close calls are made in tight games. Hard fouls are committed. SOTG is about how you handle yourself under pressure: how you contain your emotionality, tame your temper, and modulate your voice. If you initiate or contribute to the unraveling of spirit, the concept falls apart quickly. If you act to mend things (or at least not exacerbate the situation) by following (1) above, the game heals itself.

3. HECKLING AND TAUNTING ARE DIFFERENT.

Ultimate has a long tradition of good-natured heckling. Heckles are friendly barbs, typically from non-playing spectators. Heckling can be fun, but taunting is uninspired and wrong. Harassing remarks after an opponent's foul call or close play are NOT heckling: they are abusive taunts which create unpleasant playing conditions and often escalate to acrimonious disputes.

4. SOTG IS COMPATIBLE WITH CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY.

It is a fallacy to argue that the stakes are so important that some aspect of SOTG can be cast aside. Time and again, great teams and star players have shown that you can bring all your competitive and athletic zeal to a game without sacrificing fair play or respect for your opponent.

5. DON'T “GIVE AS YOU GOT.”

There is no “eye for an eye.” If you are wronged, you have no right to wrong someone in return. In the extreme case where you were severely mistreated, you may bring the issue up with a captain, tournament director, or even lodge a complaint with the governing body. If you retaliate in kind, however, a complaint may be filed against you. We recall point (1): treat others as you would have them treat you, not as they have treated you. In the end, you are responsible for you.

6. BREATHE.

After a hard foul, close call, or disputed play, take a step back, pause, and take a deep breath. In the heat of competition, emotions run high. By giving yourself just a bit of time and space, you will gain enough perspective to compose yourself and concentrate on the facts involved in the dispute (was she in or out; did you hit his hand or the disc; did that pick affect the play). Your restraint will induce a more restrained response from your opponent. Conflagration averted, you may resume business as usual.

7. WHEN YOU DO THE RIGHT THING, PEOPLE NOTICE.

When you turn the other cheek, you know you've done the right thing. You may not hear praise, there may be no standing ovation, but people do notice. Eventually, their respect for you and their appreciation of the game will grow.

8. BE GENEROUS WITH PRAISE.

Compliment an opponent on her good catch. Remark to a teammate that you admire their honesty in calling themselves out of bounds. Look players in the eye and congratulate them when you shake their hands after a game. These small acts boost spirit greatly, a large payoff for little time and effort.

9. IMPRESSIONS LINGER.

Not only does the realization that your actions will be remembered for a long time serve to curb poor behavior, it can also inspire better conduct. Many old-timers enjoy the experience of meeting an elite player who remembers their first rendezvous on the field and recalls the event in detail. A good first encounter with an impressionable young player can have considerable long term positive impact.

10. HAVE FUN.

All other things being equal, games are far more fun without the antipathy. Go hard. Play fair. Have fun.

Special thanks to Eric Zaslow and members of the 2005 Conduct Committee (Jeff Dunbar, Kate Bergeron, Eric Zaslow, Will Deaver) for the development of this document. Adopted by USA Ultimate Executive Committee, March 29, 2005.

SPIRIT AWARDS

Ultimate has traditionally relied upon the spirit of sportsmanship, which places the responsibility for fair play on the player. Highly competitive play is encouraged, but never at the expense of mutual respect among competitors, adherence to the agreed upon rules of the game, or the basic joy of play.
- 11th Edition USA Ultimate Rules of Ultimate

TEAM AWARDS

Following every game, each team will be asked to rate its opponent using the World Flying Disc Federation's spirit scoring system.

WFDF SPIRIT SCORING

The objectives of the Spirit of the Game (SOTG) scoring sheet are:

- 1) Educate players on what Spirit of the Game is
- 2) Help teams to improve specific parts of their Spirit
- 3) Celebrate SOTG by awarding a prize to the team that gets the highest score

To achieve this, every team needs to score in a similar fashion. We recognize that SOTG is hard to capture exactly, and the specifics and the examples may vary by country, competition level, etc., but if players adhere to the guidelines below, the objectives of the scoring system will be achieved.

HOW TO FILL IN THE SCORES

- Filling in the scores is a team effort. This helps in educating your players too. While this might take several minutes the first few times, it will take only a minute after you get used to it.
- It is expected that teams display normal, good spirit. The system was designed in accordance with this expectation. Therefore the baseline in each category is "Good" which equals 2 Points. For each game, determine if the other team was better than, worse than, or the same as just a regular game and score accordingly.
- Focus on each question and answer that question only. Do not start with an overall score in mind and work backwards to get that score.
- There might be many times that nothing out of the ordinary occurred at a game. As such, each category should get 2 points. A final score of 10 points is considered Good Spirit.
- Give a real score that reflects the items detailed on the sheet; do not score a team because you felt the team was 'nice' or because they made a funny game in the circle.
- Do your part of the job and bring back the sheet when requested by the TD.

LOGISTICS:

- Teams will receive a sample scoring sheet and explanation at the captain's meeting.
- Scorekeepers will hand out the 4-team scoring sheet during your first rounds of play each day.
- After your last round of play, return the scoring sheet to the score keeper of your last game.

SPIRIT AWARDS

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

Teams are asked to nominate a player from their own team who displays the highest level of spirit. The definition of spirit is up to each team but should include elements of respect, sportsmanship, leadership, perseverance, intensity, etc. Teams are asked to choose the player whose attitude should be emulated by teammates and admired by opponents. Individual spirit winners will receive a medal and a prize disc (courtesy of DISCRAFT).

THANKS TO DISCRAFT FOR THEIR SUPPORT OF ULTIMATE AND SPIRIT OF THE GAME!

PETER FARRICKER SPIRIT OF THE GAME AWARD – The spirit award in the men's division is named for Peter Farricker, a player who embodied Spirit of the Game to those who played with or against him. This award is given to a player in the men's division of the USA Ultimate Championship Series deemed to have exhibited personal responsibility, integrity and fairness combined with a high standard of playing ability. Each qualifying men's team nominates one player from its roster who best represents the Spirit of the Game. Each nominee is honored with a disc and a pin or set of Mardi Gras beads. The goal is that those wearing the Mardi Gras beads will be connected to Pete, each other and the Spirit of the Game, and become role models for their teammates and opponents. A selection committee selects one of the four semifinal nominees as the winner. Previous winners include Moses Rifkin, Andy Crews, Damien Scott, Jeff Eastham-Anderson, Allan Cowan, Chase Sparling-Beckley, Josh McCarthy, Robbie Cahill, Bart Watson, Matt Rebholz, Martin Cochran and Beau Kittredge.

KATHY PUFAHL SPIRIT OF THE GAME AWARD – The women's division spirit award builds upon the foundations of Spirit of the Game that are reflected in the Farricker Spirit Award: ability, fairness and integrity. The Kathy Pufahl Spirit Award also recognizes those individuals who give back to our sport and is presented to the player deemed to have exhibited personal responsibility, integrity and selfless contribution to ultimate, combined with a high standard of playing ability. Each qualifying women's team nominates one player from its roster as the person who best represents the Spirit of the Game and has contributed in a substantial way to their ultimate community. At the National Championships, each of the 16 nominees is honored with a memento reflective of Kathy's love of horticulture. A vote of the qualifying teams will determine the recipient of the Pufahl Award, which will be presented after the women's final. Previous winners include Vida Towne, Kati Halmos, Kristine Gill, DeAnna Ball, Allison Boyd, Jody Dozono, Michelle Ng, Gwen Ambler, Lauren Casey and Nancy Sun.

SPIRIT CIRCLE

USA Ultimate began recommending post-game “spirit circles” to teams at the Youth Club Championships in 2010, and continues to do so for other championship events. It’s an idea borrowed from international competitions throughout the ultimate world. For years, American teams have traveled to world championships where they have not only done exceptionally well in each competition, but showed the international community the importance we place on respect for the game and their opponents. But American players have also learned a lot from competing against teams from other countries, and invariably one of the most positive parts of the international experience has been the tradition of the post-game spirit circle. While there are a number of ways to do this, here are some quick tips to get your team started:

- Following each game, rather than lining up to slap hands, the two teams gather into a circle, alternating players on each team, facing inward, with arms around the shoulders of the person next to you.
- One or two people (often team captains) on each team will talk briefly about the game. Usually the losing team goes first, then the winning team.
- Things to talk about can include how the game went, how your own team played, what the other team did well, who on the other team played well, and anything else that might be worth communicating...even if it’s something you think could be done better (and don’t forget to look in the mirror on this).
- After each team has had a chance to talk, the winning team takes a step into the circle and walks around counter-clockwise to slap hands with the players on the other team.

That’s it! It’s pretty simple and definitely an experience that brings teams together and puts the game and the experience in perspective. It’s all about respect for each other and the experience of bringing out the best in each other through competition. It’s also about building relationships and seeing opponents for what they really are: part of the same community that loves ultimate. Please note that this is not meant to replace other post-game traditions you may have (e.g., cheers, games, photos, gifts or trading gear). Good luck, and please let USA Ultimate staff and other event organizers how it goes!

IRONSIDE

BOSTON, MA

Website: bostonironside.com

Captains: Danny Clark, George Stubbs,

Russell Wallack

Coach: Josh McCarthy

Following a transition year for Boston Ultimate in 2007, in the wake of the merger of historic Death or Glory with upstart Metal Ultimate, Ironside was officially founded in 2008. The crew has enjoyed a successful run since its inception, capturing several regular-season tournament championships and reaching the semifinals or finals of the USA Ultimate Club Championships in each of the past six years. However, in three trips to the championship game, the Boat has come up short each time in its efforts to bring an elusive title back home to Boston. Though only two members of the original 2007 transitional team (captain Danny Clark and Teddy Browar-Jarus) remain rostered, the 2014 edition of Ironside features 21 (out of a possible 27) returners from last year's semifinals squad. The six newly charged midshipmen first class range from savvy veterans to young sailors competing at the elite level for the first time.

NEW YORK, NY

Captains: Andrew Wilkes, Milo Snyder,
Christopher Mazur
Coach: Bryan Jones

Since its founding in 2005, the Pride of New York (PoNY) has attempted to advance the disc up and down fields with two end zones. Their movement combines the fluid improvisation of soccer with the aerial passing attack of football – except every player is both a quarterback and a receiver. PoNY never runs while in possession of the disc, but does pivot and throw passes to teammates. If a pass is dropped, intercepted or thrown out of bounds, PoNY loses possession and plays defense. The team's efforts are highly competitive: they don't wear tie-dye, and there are no dogs allowed. Still, PoNY's intensity never comes at the expense of mutual respect among competitors or the basic joy of play.

PRAIRIE FIRE

KANSAS CITY, KS

Website: prairiefireultimate.com

Captains: Kyle Welch, Ben Deneka,
Joe Nickels, Joe Young

Prairie Fire was founded in 2008 to unite competitive ultimate in Kansas City. Now in its seventh year, Prairie Fire has broken through to the National scene for the first time. Throughout the 2000s, dozens of talented Kansas City players wandered through split squads, small rosters and one-off teams. Prairie Fire's explicit goal was to unite these experienced players and combine them with young talent from regional colleges. The focus was player development, competition and defensive intensity. While the original squad had 20 players affiliated with the University of Kansas, Prairie Fire has grown to encompass half of the Midwest. This year's squad includes current and former players from Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Arkansas, Iowa, Missouri State, Luther, Iowa State and Mississippi. It's no surprise the team's potential has grown as well.

REVOLVER

SAN FRANCISCO, CA

Website: revolverultimate.com

Captains: Ashlin Joye, Nick Schlag,
Cassidy Rasmussen, Ryo Kawaoka
Coach: Mike Payne

Revolver was established in 2006 when Nick Handler, Chris McManus and Marc Weinberger came together to build a new ultimate program from scratch. They sought a team where young players could learn from veterans and where the goal was to get better in every practice and game. Although Revolver did not set out to win championships, it quickly became apparent that the program's focus on young talent, role playing and great spirit had great potential. Between 2006 and 2008, Revolver qualified for Nationals twice and finished fifth both times. In 2009, Revolver lost in the finals to Chain Lightning in a game that exposed the program's inexperience at that level. In 2010, Revolver broke through and won both the National Championship and the World Club Championship in Prague, CZ. Revolver enjoyed continued success in the next several years, winning Nationals in 2011 and Worlds in Japan in 2012. A loss to Doublewide in the finals of Nationals in 2012 stopped Revolver's streak of major championships, but in 2013, Revolver returned with a largely revamped roster, including eight entirely new players. Public expectations for the team were not high, but by the end of the season, Revolver was back on top with another National Championship. 2014 brings another group of young players and a new Revolver that is hungry to rise again.

SUB ZERO

MINNEAPOLIS, MN

Website: subzeroultimate.com

Captains: Jon Gaynor, Grant Lindsley, Tom Murray

Sub Zero ultimate was founded a long time ago. This year's version of the team returns a good portion of its core, although a healthy number of fresh faces makes us as athletic as ever. If it weren't for our generous sponsorship through Surly Brewing Company — allowing us beer after practices and other team events — the team would have never reached the same levels of success because nobody would come to practice or team events. Thank you Surly, for helping to keep us chugging along, year after year.

TRUCK STOP

WASHINGTON, DC

Captains: Jeff Wodatch, David Cranston,

Coach: Will Smolinski

Following the 2005 Metro East Regional Championships, players from several teams happened upon each other at the Chesapeake House Service Area just off I-95. Tensions still high from some contentious games earlier in the day, words were shouted, chests were bumped, players were separated. Somehow this ended with Truck Stop being born. Now you know.

7 FIGURES

LOS ANGELES, CA

Website: 7figuresultimate.com

Captains: Emma Frankel, Daniel Walton, Matt Welsh

The Los Angeles 7 Figures Golf and Polo Club was founded in 2010 by a group of friends determined to enjoy the finer things in life. Hailing from the entertainment capital of the world, opulence and glamor are the standard for members of the club. When not pursuing leisurely athletic activities, you can find club members lounging poolside, sipping champagne with movie stars and super models.

Club members adhere to three ideals: Fun, Friendship and Fitness. Under these principles, 7 Figures is making its fourth consecutive trip to the USA Ultimate National Championships. Eleven new members have contributed enormously to a successful 2014 regular-season campaign. After learning that it is not possible to simply buy the ultimate national title, the members of the club have invested their considerable resources into trying to win a championship the old-fashioned way.

THE ADMINISTRATORS

PORTLAND, OR

Captain: Jacob Artz

Coach: Kelly Marx

The tale begins when Jacob Artz, realizing that, due to an accident, his chances of qualifying for Portland's 2016 Olympic track team are dashed, scrounges around looking for another sport for competition. Since ex-Jamaican gold medal ultimate winner Kelly Marx now lives in Portland, Jacob chooses ultimate, convincing Kelly to coach the team. Jacob then forms his team. He gets his friend David Marble to join up and recruits Jared Fitzpatrick, a young man who lacks self-confidence, and Andie Hendrick, a disagreeable and bitter malcontent. After setbacks and near disasters, the group gels as team members and they head off to Nationals to compete for a Pro Flight spot.

THE CHAD LARSON EXPERIENCE

AMES, IA

Captains: Kevin Seiler, Neal Hanke

The Chad Larson Experience was founded in 2003, made Nationals for the first time in 2004, and besides a two-year hiatus during 2007 and 2008 (when most CLX players were playing on The Van Buren Boys, Small Rackages and Alpha Cobra Squadron), has qualified for Nationals every year thereafter. We've been club mixed runner-up twice, first in 2004 and later in 2009. We've represented the U.S. at two World Ultimate Club Championships: 2006 in Perth, Australia, where we finished 10th and later in 2010, in Prague, Czech Republic, where we finished as champions. We thank our families and friends for supporting us in our ultimate endeavors and thank those players who have been in the CLX family before us, helping us to get to where we are today.

DRAG'N THRUST

MINNEAPOLIS, MN

Website: dragnthrust.com

Captains: Austin Lien, James Hron, Patty King

Coach: Jake Henderson

Drag'n Thrust was born of fire and flame in 2009. Built on the vision of work ethic, respect and friendship, Drag'n Thrust has made Nationals in four of the last five years, with semifinals appearances in 2010 and 2012. In 2013, Drag'n Thrust's hard work paid off, as they won their first ever national championship. In August 2014, Drag'n Thrust won the World Ultimate Club Championship in Lecco, Italy. Work Ethic: Drag'n Thrust knows that success comes through hard work. Mistakes that are made today become victories tomorrow. Respect: Drag'n Thrust strives at all times to respect each other, all opponents and the game itself. This respect is shown both on and off the field.

Friendship: Playing for Drag'n Thrust means more than just playing for a team. It is a group of friends that work hard all year for a single, attainable goal. As the saying goes, "Once a Drag'n, always a Drag'n."

Coach: Chris Doyle

Mischief. It means trickery, chicanery and spirited fun. It means winning games with our legs and, when our legs can't run any more, going the last mile with heart. It means always having more in the tank. It means putting everything on the line for your team, feeling the high of every victory, the heartbreak of every loss and bouncing back stronger than ever. It means making superheroes out of ordinary people. It means rewarding the fans for sticking with us 'til the very end.

Founded in 2003, Mischief has been a consistent force in mixed for over a decade, and we are excited to make our eighth appearance at Nationals. The last few years, have seen the departure of some long-time veterans, but our team retains the same identity that has made us so successful and fun. Fueled by trust on the field and pizza off of it, we're ready to make some mischief in Frisco.

SANTA MARIA

COLUMBUS, OH

Twitter: @ColumbusMixed

Captains: Jeff Kula, Paige Soper

2009: Columbus Mixed set sail aboard two separate vessels, Scurvy and Commitment Issues. While fun was high, both long-term direction and vitamin C intake were low. 2010: Leadership tackled the age-old question, are discs "flat" or "round"? To find the answer, a larger ship was commissioned for construction. Using a new map – worn proudly by each shipmate – "Santa Maria" was formed. A valiant quest destined them for sixth place in a loaded region, facing some Drag('n Thrust) along their travels before deciding to Overhaul initial plans. 2012: After a Super Phun year at port, Santa Maria set sail once again. Still searching, the journey took the sailors to uncharted lands beyond the Great Lakes, including the mighty Chesapeake. Facing occasional rough waters, the explorers floated adrift to a third-place regionals finish. 2013: Core leadership and crew intact, Santa Maria was welcomed in foreign lands. Withstanding battle wounds, they believed to have found the answer they sought. But on the return trip home, on a treacherous September afternoon, Santa Maria collided with a sturdy Steamboat. 2014: Repaired and fortified, and still boasting nine shipmates from its maiden voyage, Santa Maria's quest continues. Uno, dos, tres ... Juan de la Cosa.

Look up the word consistency in the dictionary, do you know what you'll see? A definition of the word consistency. However, look up consistency on the internet, and you'll see a picture of Slow White. Sure, some of the names and faces have changed, but it's still the same program you know and love. This year marks Slow White's 10th consecutive trip to the USA Ultimate National Championships. We are a two-time silver medalist still searching for that elusive gold.

Captains: Darcy Drummond, Kathryn Pohran
Coach: Carla Di Filippo

Capitals started in 2005 with a combination of players from across Ontario to compete in the USA Ultimate series and to hopefully represent Canada at the WUGC. Since inception, Capitals have made the top eight at the USA Ultimate National Championships in each year except 2008, where they finished ninth. In their nine-year history, Capitals have broken into the semifinals twice, 2009 and 2011, and the finals in 2010, where they lost to Fury 15-9. Capitals fell short to fellow Canadian team Traffic in 2007 in an attempt to compete at WUGC. However, Capitals captured the honour of representing Canada at the WUGC in 2012 where they finished third and won the Spirit of the Game Award. Capitals will make the push in 2015 to represent Canada once again on the world stage.

Captains: Joanne Burgess, Katie Ryan, Nichole Smith

Coach: Jeff George

Green Means Go was founded in 2011 by former captain Keri Dorko. After several years of upheaval in the Philadelphia women's club scene, the original players of Green Means Go came together with the intention of creating a competitive and sustainable program that would foster development at all levels. The team has grown significantly over the past four years, with its strong Philadelphia core being supplemented by top players from New Jersey and Delaware. After three consecutive years of losing in the game-to-go at regionals, GMG was able to secure the second bid from the Mid-Atlantic this year, making this the first trip to Nationals in the team's history.

Titanic is a 1997 American epic romantic disaster film directed, written, co-produced, co-edited and partly financed by James Cameron. A fictionalized account of the sinking of the RMS Titanic, it stars Leonardo DiCaprio and Kate Winslet as members of different social classes who fall in love aboard the ship during its ill-fated maiden voyage.

"Kate Winslet's character, Rose, was one of the vilest and most disgusting characters ever to grace the silver screen. From beginning to end, she displayed nothing but character flaws and a lack of concern for everyone else around her."

Molly Brown, a minor character in the movie, said: '[upon seeing the upended Titanic] God Almighty.'

OZONE

ATLANTA, GA

Website: ozoneultimate.org

Captains: Alison Douglas, Angela Lin

Coach: Chris Goodson

Established in 1984, this is Ozone's 31st season. This year, we have focused on having fun, being pretty, and not taking ourselves too seriously. It's safe to say that this season's motto is "Look at nothing to see everything," and it has served us well, as we are regional champions for the first time since 2008. This year, we are ready to come out strong in Frisco, make people pay the troll toll, and in the words of Mr. Puppy, "Get nasty!"

RIOT

SEATTLE, WA

Website: seattleriot.org

Captains: Alyssa Weatherford, Gwen Ambler,

Rohre Titcomb

Head Coach: Andy Lovseth

Strength and Conditioning Coach: Ren Caldwell

Since the team's formation in 2000, Riot has become a perennial powerhouse in the women's club division, including earning world titles in 2002 and 2014, as well as back-to-back national championships in 2004 and 2005. This season, the team returned most of our 2013 roster (including getting our ACL crew back on the field!), added two new faces and a former Riot returning after a break, and are proud to be coached by Andy Lovseth. Andy was an assistant coach last year, and we couldn't be happier that he wanted to stay on board with Riot in 2014 as our head coach. 2014 has been a process-focused year, thinking about what being successful means to us and the "how" behind the way we play. Channeling the mayhem of our namesake, the 1999 WTO riots in Seattle, we intend to wreak havoc on our opponents with stifling defense and an aggressive offensive attack. All while staying true to our team core values: Excellence, Trust, Love. It's harvest time!

Coaches: Danny Quarrell, Mike Knapp

Schwa has reigned as the elite women's ultimate team out of Portland, OR, since 1995. Schwa began to really make waves in the ultimate community in 1996 when they first qualified for Worlds. In 1999, Schwa pulled a huge upset over then-perennial champions Godiva to meet Fury in the finals, where Schwa fell to second place. Schwa took second place at Worlds in 1997 and 1999 and continued to be regulars at the top of U.S. competition through the early 2000s. 2007-2011 was a time of growth and rebuilding until 2012 when they made their return to Nationals. Schwa is a young, hungry team looking to represent Oregon and the Northwest and leave it all on the fields in Frisco!

After years of playing against each other, the strength of Texas united in 2006. Texas Showdown represents all corners of the state, from Houston to El Paso, Dallas to San Antonio. We often meet in the middle, in the capital, Austin. In 2012 and 2013, Showdown broke through to the semis at Nationals and, based on our performance in 2013, we qualified for the 2014 World Ultimate Club Championships in Lecco, where we finished fourth.

TABBY ROSA

GAINESVILLE, FL

Website: facebook.com/TabbyRosaUltimate

Captains: Jenna Dahl, Katelyn Cobelens

Coach: Joe Tilley

In the spring of 2012, three gingers sat around a table to discuss the upcoming club season and our hopes and dreams for a competitive women's club team in Florida. Being soulless isn't easy, and we all missed the camaraderie that can only be found with a group of intense, athletic, committed individuals. We started by gauging interest in all of the cities with college teams or ultimate ties, but our first year was small and mostly confined to players from Gainesville. Then, with the siren call of Michelle Ng's captaining clinic, the college wenches joined forces to progress the future of Florida women's ultimate. With fresh, new talent, our second-year team had the fuel we needed to establish a fundamental combined-city club team that we hoped would be worth everyone's sacrifice. We're now in our third season, and these native ladies have returned to finish what we started: punching a ticket to Frisco, Texas. We're looking forward to upcoming challenges and can't wait to keep building up women in ultimate. #tabbyball

UNDERGROUND

SEATTLE, WA

Website: seattleunderground.wordpress.com

Captains: AnnaMaria Paruk, Noel Hanzel, Trudy Philip

Coach: Frank Nam

Seattle Underground started making waves in the greater Puget Sound in 2009, barely missing out on a bid to Nationals in its first club season. The 2010 and 2011 seasons were similar, with UG continuing to turn heads, returning wise veterans and recruiting savvy rookies, but missing Nationals by only a few points.

In 2012, UG made big moves. With the addition of a very talented rookie class and returners with a fire, UG earned a bid to Nationals for the Northwest region and took it at regionals to make a first Nationals appearance. In 2013, UG competed in the elite tier. At regionals, UG lost a heartbreaking game-to-go to Nationals, taking fourth in the region. That loss only made Underground hungrier and more eager for the 2014 season. We love to play ultimate and have fun doing it, and now...we keep digging.

USA ULTIMATE TRIPLE CROWN TOUR

The USA Ultimate Triple Crown Tour is a competition structure, introduced in 2013, for the USA Ultimate club season, including the summer regular season and the fall Championship Series for the men’s, mixed and women’s divisions. Teams in this structure qualify into one of four “Flights” based on their finish in the previous year’s Championship Series. Qualification for the 2014 National Championships means all teams at Nationals have earned their way into one of the two top Flights (Pro or Elite) for 2015. At the 2014 National Championships, the top 8 finishers will earn spots in the 2015 Pro Flight. Semifinalists will earn a bid to the 2015 U.S. Open Championships. The bottom eight teams at Nationals will have earned spots in the Elite Flight for the 2015 Triple Crown Tour.

PLACEMENT GAMES

Schedule Clarifications

- 5* through 8* are quarterfinal losers in order of post-regionals ranking.
- 9* through 16* are pre-quarters losers in order of post-regionals ranking.
- Pro Flight Play-In/seventh-place bracket: Each fifth-place semifinal loser will match up against a ninth- place semifinal winner to compete for one the final two spots in the 2015 Pro Flight. Winners of these two games will qualify for the last two spots in the Pro Flight.

Detailed rules governing the playing of placement games and their impact on the 2014 season and events for all three divisions have been provided in the Competition Rules document, distributed to each team prior to the National Championships and reviewed at the Captain’s Meeting. Please check with your team captain or the Competition Director for questions or clarifications.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Medical staff, including athletic trainers, will be on site at Tournament Central to treat injuries, handle emergencies and provide some preventative care. The event will provide standard athletic tape, pre-wrap, ice and some bandages. Other supplies, including special tape/bandages and anti-inflammatory drugs, must be provided by teams or may be charged by the training staff. If there is an injury on a field that needs medical attention, inform a field marshal and he/she will radio to the trainers. If you have medical issues that require attention in the morning before play, please show up early to avoid long lines. The trainers will be at the fields two hours before game time each day. Directions to the local hospital can be found in the "Directions" section of this program.

CONCUSSIONS

1. Concussions are brain injuries that can occur as a result of a blow to the head.
2. Symptoms may include headache, nausea, vision problems, confusion, and balance problems.
3. If you think you or one of your teammates might have a concussion, tell your coach and have the athlete see a medical professional. Medical staff members are on hand at Tournament Central.
4. Athletes who have suspected concussions will not be allowed to return to play without a note from a health professional skilled in concussion management clearing them for healthy participation.
5. Coaches are required to complete a concussion training course (like the Heads Up course offered by the CDC free online) annually.

HEAT, NUTRITION AND HYDRATION

- Heat-related illness occurs when body cooling by evaporation is limited. Sweating depletes the body's salt and moisture, which leads to dehydration. If a player recognizes any signs or symptoms of heat-related illness, he or she should treat the problem immediately.
- Signs and symptoms of heat illness can include changes in level of consciousness, abdominal cramps, nausea/vomiting, fatigue/tingling, chills, inability to spit, dry mucous membranes, decreased output and change in color of urine.
- Prevention and treatment of heat illness
  - Avoid alcohol, caffeine and carbonated beverages.
  - Medications such as antihistamines, decongestants, certain asthma medications and diuretics can increase risk for heat illness. Avoid them if possible.
  - Avoid certain nutritional supplements (such as caffeine and ephedrine) that can dehydrate the body and/or increase metabolism and heat production.
  - Know your body – be honest! Are you fit enough to perform under current conditions?
  - Eat and drink (water AND sports drinks) optimally before, during and after play. Potassium is important (good sources include sports drinks, yogurt, grapefruit juice, bananas and oranges). Sodium is also important (good sources include sports drinks, vegetable juices, pretzels, nuts, cheese and crackers). After play, carbohydrates are important: foods such as potatoes, honey, cereal, white bread, corn chips, sports drinks, jelly beans, rice cakes, bagels, crackers and gummy candies).

- Don't drink too much. Over-hydrating can be dangerous if it leads to a fluid and electrolyte imbalance.
- Monitor your urine. Clear/copious = hydrated. Dark = Need water/electrolytes.
- Be sensitive to prior illness. If you've been sick, your body may be more susceptible to dehydration.
- Rest and cool down after play. Find shade, wet the skin, get in front of a fan or breeze.

SIDELINE SAFETY

- Spectators and equipment must stay at least three yards away from the sidelines. Where there are buffer lines, respect them. Chairs, coolers, strollers, you, etc., must be at least three yards from the sidelines.
- If a player believes that an object on the sideline is not safe, he or she should inform Event Staff and refrain from playing until he or she is satisfied that safe conditions have been established.
- USA Ultimate and Event Staff reserve the right to move or remove objects or spectators from on or near the playing field if those conditions are, in the opinion of USA Ultimate or Event Staff, unsafe for players, staff or spectators.

LIGHTNING GUIDELINES

- Event Staff will communicate with players and spectators via PA system and through scorekeepers equipped with radios if there is a lightning danger. Play then will be stopped, and everyone should seek shelter.
- Safe shelter for players and spectators at the field site includes any fully enclosed building or vehicle with a hard top and closed windows.
- Event Staff will use the “flash-to-bang” method to determine when to send people to shelter. By the time the flash-to-bang count has reached 30 seconds, all individuals should be in a safe shelter location.
- If you can't get to a safe shelter, try to avoid being the tallest object in an open field or on open water. Avoid other tall objects, metal objects and water. Assume a crouched position with only the balls of your feet touching the ground, your arms wrapped around your knees, and your head lowered. Minimize contact with the ground. Do not lie flat.
- Avoid using telephone land lines. Cell phones are safe, provided the person has followed other safety guidelines.
- Event Staff will indicate to players when play is going to resume. Team captains should meet at Tournament Central to receive instructions for resuming play and any schedule modifications.

USA ULTIMATE SPIRIT OF COACHING

BACKGROUND: The role of the coach at all levels of ultimate is unique in a sport that places on-field player authority above non-player influence. As a non-player, the coach's authority must not extend to the on-field officiating process. Coaches may be faced with situations where they are able to correct the self-officiating process and ensure the correct outcome to a given play. In this situation, coaches must not interfere in the officiating process, in order to ensure that players learn and take responsibility for officiating. Coach interference in the decision-making process, even in the most egregious violations, will indicate to players that the coach and not the players have the ultimate responsibility for ensuring the inherent fairness of the game. Teaching players the rules and how to implement them should be done at practices or off the field. It is the coach's responsibility to ensure the players understand their own responsibilities as players and teach players how to handle those responsibilities.

GUIDELINES:

1. Coaches should introduce themselves to the other coaches prior to a game and discuss concerns. This could potentially include the level of play, the level of intensity (e.g. spiking and rushing the field), and possible modifications to the captain's clause (e.g. prohibiting zone for new teams or footblocking).
2. Because the potential for misperception is high, spiking is prohibited at the youth level unless otherwise agreed upon by the coaches or captains. Spiking in a disrespectful manner is never okay at any level.
3. Coaches will not make calls from the sideline nor offer their opinion on a play. Coaches should encourage players to come to a resolution on their own, and if asked during a dispute, coaches may offer rules clarifications. After a dispute, a coach may talk to his or her own player about the dispute and offer opinions.
4. Youth coaches will make an effort to educate parents about Spirit of the Game and work to create a sideline atmosphere that respects Spirit of the Game.
5. Coaches will teach and give players opportunities to practice knowledge of the rules of ultimate.
6. Coaches will always exhibit respect for opposing players.
7. Coaches will always exhibit respect for other coaches.
8. Coaches will always exhibit respect for observers.
9. Coaches will model Spirit of the Game at all times.

SUMMARY: The coach's goal in terms of Spirit of the Game is to create an environment in which players are responsible for upholding the rules and ensuring that the outcomes of plays and games are fair.
