WELCOME

On behalf of USA Ultimate and Minnesota Ultimate, I welcome you to the 12th annual USA Ultimate Youth Club Championships.

This year, we have almost 80 teams across five divisions, hailing from coast to coast and north to south, continuing the growth that has always been a part of YCC. You should expect to see the best of youth ultimate.

YCC takes place at the National Sports Center (NSC) in Blaine, Minn. NSC is one of the largest sports facilities in the world and continues to grow. Ultimate is played here every summer by TCUL, the local adult league, and Minnesota Ultimate holds its High School State Championship here in early June. Several other ultimate tournaments have been held at NSC over the years.

The Friday night social event will be in the Sport Expo Center at NSC and will feature food, a trade night and other excitements. Traditionally, we organize an exhibition game between coaches which is always very popular

The Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul are home to many major and minor league sports teams. You might be able to take in a game. For the ultimate shopper, the Mall of America is in Bloomington, Minn., not far from the Minneapolis/St. Paul International Airport.

YCC only happens because LOTS of people volunteer their time. They will be keeping score, running the social events and performing many other tasks around the fields. Be sure to acknowledge their hard work – when you see a volunteer, say “Thanks!”

Have a great tournament!

COMPETITION RULES

- USA Ultimate Official Rules of Ultimate – 11th Edition will be used with the following additions:
 - o End-zone size – End-zone length will be shortened to 20 yards.
 - o Contact Call – If contact occurs between the thrower and marker that would constitute a foul under XVI.H.3.a but the thrower does not release the disc, “contact” may be called. Play does not stop, and the marker resumes the stall count at “one.” Other than resetting the stall count to “one” after the first instance, the “contact” call is treated as any other marking violation. The marker may contest the “contact” call by calling “violation,” which stops play. If the thrower calls “contact” after beginning the throwing motion and subsequently releases the disc, it is treated as if the thrower called “foul.”
- All games to 13, point cap at 15 except the following which will play to 15 with a point cap of 17:
 - U-19 Boys Pool A
 - U-19 Girls Pool A
 - U-16 Boys Pool D
- Halftime is 5 minutes.
- Each team has two timeouts per half.
- Regardless of how many timeouts a team has used before overtime, during overtime, each team has one timeout.
- Overtime: a game is in overtime if tied at one point less than original game total (e.g., in a game to 13 goals, overtime occurs when the score reaches 12-12).
- Soft time caps will not be used.
- Hard time cap goes on at end of round time on schedule. Game is over at the end of the point in progress, unless tied. If tied, play one more point.
- The cap does not affect timeouts.

SITE RULES

- No Alcohol
- No Tobacco
- No Glass
- No Weapons
- No Abusive Language
- Observe Parking Restrictions and Handicap/Staff Spots
- Dogs Must be Leashed
- Spectators and equipment must stay at least 5 yards away from sidelines! Where there are buffer lines, respect them. Where there are not buffer lines, stay back at least 5 yards.
- Trash and Recycling – Place recyclables in the recycling receptacles, and place trash in the trash cans.

The ultimate community tragically lost a vibrant and loved individual. Just days after graduating from Berkeley High, Efejon Ustenci's heart failed while swimming in an alpine lake.

There are no words to express the pain that comes with the death of a teammate, a team leader, a friend, a mentor, an astounding athlete who, as coaches, we have watched grow from a stubborn, intense little boy into a just-as-stubborn, just-as-intense, inspiring young man. Efe was a player who wore his emotions proudly – he celebrated great plays, both his teammates and his own, he would cry in the face of difficult defeats, and he was unafraid to call out his teammates and demand from them the work ethic and integrity that he exemplified. Efe was also the first to congratulate an opponent on exceptional play, was a player who always listened to and acted on advice from any source, and was among the first to notice a shy freshman who needed a throwing buddy and make a new friend.

To Maureen and Mustafa: Thank you for the incredible gift of sharing your son with the Bay Area Ultimate community. We have been truly blessed by the energy and spirit Efejon brought to every team he was on. Efejon lived his life at a level of intensity we should all aspire to, and as his parents, you fostered this and encouraged him to become the incredible young man he was. Efe's light has been extinguished far too soon, but it was a bright and unfaltering beacon that embodied to the fullest extent the values of our community, of which you are forever an integral part: friendship, competition, and Spirit of the Game.

When Efe and the rest of the BHS class of 2016 were freshmen, most of them formed the core of the first-ever Berkeley High Coup Ultimate Yellow team. These players joined a proud tradition in which, after each game, the team would assemble in front of their opponents with the words "Because we are the Berkeley High Coup, we have a Haiku for you." Carefully counting syllables (5-7-5) grew into a proper art form as this team grew together over four years. Joe Villeneuve, one of our parents, shared this haiku for Efejon:

Efe Ustenci
A force to be reckoned with.
Rest in peace brother.

It is impossible for us to reconcile the thought that our beautiful friend will no longer be gazing back at us across the team circle, ready to storm the field. As we mourn the loss of a great player and great friend, may we all remember to live our lives and play our sport with the passion, intensity, and Spirit of the Game that we know is possible because of the example set by Efejon.

They say "no one that lives in Atlanta is from Atlanta." This belief is embodied in the extraterrestrial talents of the ATLiens; the roster is out of this world. Captained by Stan Birdsong (Paideia) and Noah Li (Grady), the squad has representatives from eight different high schools. ATLiens have been invading YCC since its inception in 2005, winning a championship in 2013. This year's team is ready to take another trophy back to their home planet.

Massachusetts has a rich history in youth ultimate, and BUDA is thrilled to continue that tradition by sending teams to all three divisions of U-19 YCC competition. Players from all three teams have spent the last year playing with and against each other in various youth leagues across Massachusetts. The caliber of the BUDA players is high – evidenced by previous YCC Championships and finals appearances, as well as several players who are nationally and internationally competitive – but the level of camaraderie is also high as most players know each other off the field as well as on it, and non-ultimate team activities have become a regular part of the BUDA YCC experience. BUDA's coaches, chaperones and team leaders are all very proud of the young adults coming out of the program, and the whole BUDA family is looking forward to a fantastic YCC experience in 2016!

This year, Helix has partnered with the Austin ultimate community and is proud to have a strong representation of Austin players on the team. Helix is led by Head Coach Mac Little with the help of Austin Assistant Coach Luis Torres and Houston Assistant Coach Chad Hobson.

Superior says it all. It has been a team name for Minnesota YCC programs for years now, but it continues to define our culture more than being just our title. Lake Superior is the deepest of the Great Lakes and for 2016 Superior A, this is the deepest roster of talent we have fielded in years. This is a roster where each player has YCC tournament experience and many from our own U-16 program. We have championship players on every level from College Nationals, regionals, state and conferences. All that matters for us this August is to be Superior — in our Spirit, Playing Style and Character.

SEATTLE INC.

Seattle, WA

Captains: Derek Mourad, Daniel Mah

Coaches: Steve Gussin, Dong Yang Chen

The team chosen to represent Seattle and DiscNW leagues for the U-19 boys' division was born in the late winter months in Seattle. Long before school teams take the field for their first spring practice, those who want to be selected for our traveling team need to go through a rigorous month-long tryout process. This year's team, Seattle Inc., is one of the most diverse teams we've put together, representing many schools from all over the Puget Sound area. We've been training hard since spring, against local elite players and YCC alumni, and donating our time and knowledge at local youth clinics and camps. We are excited to be representing the greater Seattle area, and we look forward to playing everyone this August.

@BUDA_YCC_Girls

Massachusetts has a rich history in youth ultimate, and BUDA is thrilled to continue that tradition by sending teams to all three divisions of U-19 YCC competition. Players from all three teams have spent the last year playing with and against each other in various youth leagues across Massachusetts.

The caliber of the BUDA players is high - evidenced by previous YCC Championships and finals appearances, as well as several players who are nationally and internationally competitive. But the level of camaraderie is also high as most players know each other off the field as well as on it, and non-ultimate team activities have become a regular part of the BUDA YCC experience. BUDA's coaches, chaperones and team leaders are all very proud of the young adults coming out of the program, and the whole BUDA family is looking forward to a fantastic YCC experience in 2016!

Ever since 2007, Cincinnati has been represented at YCC in the U-19 girls' division. In 2010, Cincinnati named this select group of girls from all over the local area Belle.

Over the summer, Belle has grown together as a team by attending several other tournaments in preparation for competing at YCC. New Jersey

Captains: Kate Stoll, Lucia Wei

Coaches: Ken Karnas, Rebecca Chang

The DEVYL girls have been competing at YCC for the past four years and have enjoyed the competitive nature of the tournament. The team is made up of girls from throughout New Jersey and has performed consistently at YCC each year. While not as young as last year's team, this team is a fairly young group including all seven of New Jersey's first-team all-state players and a U.S. women's U-20 National Team player. The team has expanded this year to include a 'devyl'opmental team including 15 younger players who hope to one day be ready for U-19.

SEATTLE NIMBUS

Seattle, WA

Captains: Maya Powell, Nariah-Belle Sims

Coaches: Shannon O'Malley, Aimie Kawai, Alyssa Weatherford

The team chosen to represent Seattle and DiscNW leagues for the U-19 girls' division was born in the late winter months in Seattle. Long before school teams take the field for their first spring practice, those who want to be selected for our traveling team need to go through a rigorous month-long tryout process. This year's team, Nimbus, is looking to continue our tradition of excellence at YCC. We've been training hard since spring and helping to pass on our knowledge to those younger than us by volunteering time at camps and elementary school tournaments. We are excited to be representing the greater Seattle area, and we look forward to playing everyone this August.

Whelp...another year grazing across the Golden State. Seven years of growing our herd, and this year's young calves are amazing like the rest. (Chew cud) We got some rain this winter...that was nice.

Twenty-five of the happiest cows will graze upon Minnesota, led by bell cows: Cameron Beck, Michelle Slaughter and Lauren Carothers-Liske.

The world is in udder chaos, and our Moo-vement will unite with Four Stomachs and One Heart.

Cows got puns.

Massachusetts has a rich history in youth ultimate, and BUDA is thrilled to continue that tradition by sending teams to all three divisions of U-19 YCC competition. Players from all three teams have spent the last year playing with and against each other in various youth leagues across Massachusetts. The caliber of the BUDA players is high - evidenced by previous YCC Championships and finals appearances, as well as several players who are nationally and internationally competitive. But the level of camaraderie is also high as most players know each other off the field as well as on it, and non-ultimate team activities have become a regular part of the BUDA YCC experience. BUDA's coaches, chaperones and team leaders are all very proud of the young adults coming out of the program, and the whole BUDA family is looking forward to a fantastic YCC experience in 2016!

2016 marks Oregon Flood's fourth time attending the Youth Club Championships to compete for the national title! Oregon sent its first team to compete back in 2008, and they came away the champion-ship. However, it would take Oregon six years to get back to YCC. Enter Flood 2014. Although initially seeded low, Oregon bounced back and reclaimed the title of best in the nation! 2015 marked the first time Oregon was able to send a team in back-to-back years, and although much of the talent from the 2014 team returned, Flood fell short of the title due to a lack of depth.

Now in our fourth year attending YCC, Oregon is ready to take the field once again! This year's squad features returners and new players alike, all eagerly looking forward to the moment of stepping out on to the field to represent Oregon!

The vibrant youth scene in the Philadelphia area is growing at a tremendous pace. Success at YCC 2015 created even more excitement for this year's mixed winter and YCC summer leagues. Conventional wisdom predicted an increase in tryout participants and a likely split into U-19 boys and U-19 girls' teams. But last year's team was so young and successful that they petitioned to keep as much of the core together as possible.

Having only lost to last year's two finalists, Forge has high expectations. Returning a strong, experienced core, augmented by some great, new talent, Forge is excited to come back to Blaine and push even higher into the brackets.

The vibrant youth scene in the Philadelphia area is growing at a tremendous pace. Success at YCC 2015 created even more excitement for this year's mixed winter and YCC summer leagues. Conventional wisdom predicted an increase in tryout participants and a likely split into U-19 boys and U-19 girls' teams. But last year's team was so young and successful that they petitioned to keep as much of the core together as possible.

With few roster spots available and an influx of new, great talent, a solution needed to be found to sustain growth. An elegant answer was to create another mixed team. But don't call Forge II a B team. This is purely an extension of the Forge concept, is able to compete at YCC, and will be challenging all opponents.

SEATTLE MIX-A-LOT

Seattle, WA

Captains: Michelle Yee, Kate Daugherty, Noah Kregenow, Ronnie Estoque

Coaches: Taylor Kanemori, Khalif El-salaam, Sam Terry

The team chosen to represent Seattle and DiscNW leagues for the U-19 mixed division was born in the late winter months in Seattle. Long before school teams take the field for their first spring practice, those who want to be selected for our traveling team need to go through a rigorous month-long tryout process. Mix-a-lot is looking to build upon our recent program strides at YCC. Bringing players from single-gender backgrounds to play mixed is a challenge we embrace. We've been training hard since spring and helping to pass on our knowledge to those younger than us by volunteering time at camps and elementary school tournaments. We are excited to be representing the greater Seattle area, and we look forward to playing everyone this August.

San Diego, CA

Captain: Julius Vo

Coaches: Cliff Hanna, Shannon Temple, Keith Temple, Laura Shields

Southern California has been in a drought with regard to water, as well as youth ultimate players. But that is changing. Just as water can be brought here with enough power, so POWERLINE has brought together enough talent and spirit to compete at YCC 2016. The players on the line will have risen above the traffic and will represent teams from Irvine, San Diego and L.A., stringing a framework of loose leagues into a team that will bring underdog spirit and unconventional talent to Blaine's well-irrigated fields. Young players to watch include KJ Koo and the Hanna twins (Ava and Lauren), with older experience balancing the team in the likes of Julius Vo (California-Davis), Inesse "Egg" Hanna (2015 Happy Cows YCC finalist) and Mike Palmer (2016 D-II State High School Champion).

ATLAS has the whole world in its hands this year.

Thanks to the Atlanta Flying Disc Club, ATLAS is ready to ball out of control at YCC 2016. With rising young talent and experienced athletes who

From the swamps of the Delaware Valley comes a team named after the famous Jersey Devil that lurks in the Pine Barrens between New Jersey and Pennsylvania. This creature of folklore is known to be a fast moving creature on the ground, has bat-like wings with the ability to fly, and lets out a spine-tingling scream. Meanwhile, our ultimate team prides itself on being one of the fastest-moving teams on the field, with the ability to fly up to get a disc and a sideline that is deafening. We are looking forward to bringing a U-16 team for the sixth year of this division in Blaine, Minn.

Coach: Jake Phillips

Indiana INTensity is the U-16 delegation from the Indiana Ultimate Foundation. The squad is in its second year and is excited to build off the experience gained from last year's fifth-place finish. The team is focused on building a culture of positive attitudes and strong work ethic among the young athletes in the Indiana ultimate community, to lay a foundation for years to come. The roster comes primarily from those participating on their high school teams in the Indianapolis area, who want to take their game to the next level. Each season of youth club play consists of six weeks of league play, informal tryouts and three weeks of team practices leading up to YCC. The goal of INTensity is to create quality playing opportunities that allow individuals to grow on and off the field and compete on the same level as any ultimate hot bed in the country.

MINNESOTA SUPERIOR

Minneapolis, MN

Captains: Jack Rosenthal, Daniel Barnes-Powell, Jackson Willits

Coaches: Stephen Lederman, Michael Ruble, Clayton Thomas, Conor Kline

The U-16 program is part of the larger Minnesota Superior program that has competed at YCC since its creation (with one national championship). This year's team is a combination of returners from last year and new players to YCC. The current roster has a blend of players that competed in the top division in the Minnesota High School League, to players who played in the growing Minnesota middle school program. Led by strong cutters Danny Barnes-Powell, Haakon Rondestvedt and Jack Rosenthal, this year's team looks to build on the strong skills developed during the high school season to come together as Minnesota Superior and compete with the other top teams in the U-16 division.

SEATTLE BONZAI

Seattle, WA

Captains: Tony Venneri, Jasper Dean, Adam Jemal, June Rapisura

Coaches: Reid Koss, Jesse Bolton, Sam Lehman

The team chosen to represent Seattle and DiscNW leagues for the U-16 boys division was born in the late winter months in Seattle. Long before school teams take the field for their first spring practice, those who want to be selected for our traveling team need to go through a rigorous month-long tryout process. This year saw over 100 boys compete for 20-22 spots on our U-16 team, and from them, Bonzai was born. We've been training hard ever since and helping to pass on our knowledge to those younger than us by volunteering time at camps and elementary school tournaments. We are excited to be representing the greater Seattle area, and we look forward to playing everyone this August.

MAINE RIP TIDE

Portland, ME

Coaches: Alex Pozzy, Jackie Pierce

maineultimate.org

The girls from Maine Rip Tide will be making their second appearance at YCC, bringing back most of last year's roster and looking to make some noise in the new and improved full 7 v. 7 format. Last year's team was young and full of raw talent, but all the returning members and the great new cast of recruits now make this a much more experienced team looking to take charge with great play and even greater spirit. Roll Tide!

U-16 GIRLS' TEAMS

MINNESOTA SUPERIOR

Minneapolis, MN

Captains: Sylvie Mercil, Doua Ci Lor

Coaches: Kyle Nelson, Mackenzie Olson

In our second year competing at YCC, Minnesota Superior has seen growth in the U-16 program both in the number of participants and the number of different schools represented. Despite most of last year's roster moving up to U-19 division teams, this year's U-16 team features a group of dedicated and talented young ultimate players, including our first participant from the state middle school league, D-I and D-II state champions, a five-year veteran and players who will be taking on leadership roles for the high school teams next season. As the host team, we are excited for the opportunity to represent our state and to provide spirited competition.

SPECTATOR INFO

SEATTLE HYDRA

Seattle, WA

Captains: Nina Alworth, Emma Constantino, Hazel Ostrowski

Coaches: Heather Ann Brauer, Amanda Kostic, Lani Nguyen

This is the third year DiscNW girls will be returning to YCC, this time with an almost entirely new roster, with players representing schools all over the Seattle area. But this definitely does not mean there is a lack of talent. We have been practicing and preparing all summer long for the tournament and are ready to play hard, make plays and get spirited! We chose the name "Hydra" because in Greek mythology, the Hydra is a monster with multiple heads, and if you cut one off, two more grow back in its place. The stakes are higher than ever before this year, but as our name symbolizes, when faced with difficulty, we'll work as a team, fighting back twice as hard.

MAKING ULTIMATE STRONGER

Our mission is to support ultimate, and good coaches are an integral part of the development of the sport.

So take a moment to appreciate the coaches. Heck, take a plenty of moments. We really can't thank them enough for the work they do!

Five Ultimate is proud to sponsor the 2016 USA Ultimate Coaching Development Program.

PLAY HARD. HAVE FUN.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Medical staff, including athletic trainers, will be on site at Tournament Central to treat injuries, handle emergencies and provide some preventative care. The event will provide standard athletic tape, pre-wrap, ice and some bandages. Other supplies, including special tape or bandages and anti-inflammatory drugs, must be provided by teams or may be charged by the training staff.

If there is an injury on a field that needs medical attention, inform a field marshal, and he or she will radio to the trainers.

If you have medical issues that require attention in the morning before play, please show up early to avoid long lines. The trainers will be at the fields two hours prior to game time each day.

Concussions

EDUCATION

- USA Ultimate recommends the CDC “Heads Up Safety” program, a free one-hour online training: cdc.gov/concussion/headsup/youth.html.
- USA Ultimate’s participant waiver includes important information from the CDC regarding concussion safety: usultimate.org/membership/usa_ultimate_membership_forms.aspx

COACHING REQUIREMENTS

- Coaches at USA Ultimate events are required to have completed a concussion awareness and safety recognition program (like the CDC program above or other local or state-recommended course). Coaches should not submit records of course completion to USA Ultimate, but should maintain records on-site while coaching.

REMOVAL & RETURN TO PLAY

- All guidelines identified by the CDC must be strictly followed in the event of a suspected concussion.
 1. Remove athlete from play.
 2. Ensure athlete is evaluated by a health care professional trained in concussion diagnosis and management. Do not try to judge the seriousness of the injury yourself.
 3. If a minor, inform athlete’s parents or guardians about the known or possible concussion and give them the fact sheet on concussion.
 4. Allow athlete to return to play only with permission from an appropriate health care professional.

Doctor’s Note Requirement

If, during a USA Ultimate event, an athlete receives care at a hospital, medical clinic or doctor’s office, or is referred to a hospital or doctor by event medical staff, the athlete is barred from further competition in that event until he or she provides a doctor’s note, on letterhead or prescription pad, to event medical staff stating that the athlete is authorized to return to competition.

Heat, Nutrition and Hydration

- Heat-related illness occurs when body cooling by evaporation is limited. Sweating depletes the body’s salt and moisture, which leads to dehydration. If a player recognizes any signs or symptoms of heat-related illness, he or she should treat the problem immediately.
- Signs and symptoms of heat illness can include changes in level of consciousness, abdominal cramps, nausea/vomiting, fatigue/tingling, chills, inability to spit, dry mucous membranes, decreased output and change in color of urine.

• Prevention and Treatment of Heat Illness

- Avoid alcohol, caffeine and carbonated beverages.
- Medications such as antihistamines, decongestants, certain asthma medications and diuretics can increase risk for heat illness. Avoid them if possible.
- Avoid certain nutritional supplements (such as caffeine and ephedrine) that can dehydrate the body and/or increase metabolism and heat production.
- Know your body — be honest! Are you fit enough to perform under current conditions?
- Eat and drink (water AND sports drinks) optimally before, during and after play. Potassium is important (good sources include sports drinks, yogurt, grapefruit juice, bananas and oranges). Sodium is also important (good sources include sports drinks, vegetable juices, pretzels, nuts, cheese and crackers). After play, carbohydrates are important: foods such as potatoes, honey, cereal, white bread, corn chips, sports drinks, jelly beans, rice cakes, bagels, crackers and gummy candies).
- Don't drink too much. Over-hydrating can be dangerous if it leads to a fluid and electrolyte imbalance.
- Monitor your urine. Clear/copious = hydrated. Dark = Need water/electrolytes.
- Be sensitive to prior illness. If you've been sick, your body may be more susceptible to dehydration.
- Rest and cool down after play. Find shade, wet the skin, get in front of a fan or breeze.

Sideline Safety

- Spectators and equipment must stay at least three yards away from the sidelines. Where there are buffer lines, respect them. Chairs, coolers, strollers, you, etc., must be at least three yards from the sidelines.
- If a player believes that an object on the sideline is not safe, he or she should inform event staff and refrain from playing until he or she is satisfied that safe conditions have been established.
- USA Ultimate and event staff reserve the right to move or remove objects or spectators from on or near the playing field if those conditions are, in the opinion of USA Ultimate or event staff, unsafe for players, staff or spectators.

Lightning Guidelines

- Event staff will communicate with players and spectators via PA system and through field marshals equipped with radios if there is a lightning danger. Play then will be stopped, and everyone should seek shelter.
- Safe shelter for players and spectators at the field site includes any fully enclosed building or vehicle with a hard top and closed windows.
- Event staff will use the “flash-to-bang” method to determine when to send people to shelter. By the time the flash-to-bang count has reached 30 seconds, all individuals should be in a safe shelter location.
- If you can't get to a safe shelter, try to avoid being the tallest object in an open field or on open water. Avoid other tall objects, metal objects and water. Assume a crouched position with only the balls of your feet touching the ground, your arms wrapped around your knees, and your head lowered. Minimize contact with the ground. Do not lie flat.
- Avoid using telephone land lines. Cell phones are safe, provided the person has followed other safety guidelines.
- Event staff will indicate to players when play is going to resume. Team captains should meet at Tournament Central to receive instructions for resuming play and any schedule modifications.

10 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT SPIRIT OF THE GAME™

1. THE GOLDEN RULE: TREAT OTHERS AS YOU WOULD WANT TO BE TREATED.

Spirited games result from mutual respect among opponents. Assume the best of your opponent. Give him or her the benefit of a doubt. You would want the same for yourself. But if you are thick-skinned, do not assume that your opponent is. Maybe you should think of this rule as, “treat others as you would have them treat your mother.”

2. CONTROL: SOTG TAKES REAL EFFORT.

SOTG is not just some abstract principle that everyone adopts and then games run smoothly without effort. Close calls are made in tight games. Hard fouls are committed. SOTG is about how you handle yourself under pressure: how you contain your emotionality, tame your temper, and modulate your voice. If you initiate or contribute to the unraveling of spirit, the concept falls apart quickly. If you act to mend things (or at least not exacerbate the situation) by following (1) above, the game heals itself.

3. HECKLING AND TAUNTING ARE DIFFERENT.

Ultimate has a long tradition of good-natured heckling. Heckles are friendly barbs, typically from non-playing spectators. Heckling can be fun, but taunting is unspirited and wrong. Harassing remarks after an opponent's foul call or close play are NOT heckling: they are abusive taunts which create unpleasant playing conditions and often escalate to acrimonious disputes.

4. SOTG IS COMPATIBLE WITH CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY.

It is a fallacy to argue that the stakes are so important that some aspect of SOTG can be cast aside. Time and again, great teams and star players have shown that you can bring all your competitive and athletic zeal to a game without sacrificing fair play or respect for your opponent.

5. DON'T “GIVE AS YOU GOT.”

There is no “eye for an eye.” If you are wronged, you have no right to wrong someone in return. In the extreme case where you were severely mistreated, you may bring the issue up with a captain, tournament director, or even lodge a complaint with the governing body. If you retaliate in kind, however, a complaint may be filed against you. We recall point (1): treat others as you would have them treat you, not as they have treated you. In the end, you are responsible for you.

6. BREATHE.

After a hard foul, close call, or disputed play, take a step back, pause, and take a deep breath. In the heat of competition, emotions run high. By giving yourself just a bit of time and space, you will gain enough perspective to compose yourself and concentrate on the facts involved in the dispute (was she in or out; did you hit his hand or the disc; did that pick affect the play). Your restraint will induce a more restrained response from your opponent. Conflagration averted, you may resume business as usual.

7. WHEN YOU DO THE RIGHT THING, PEOPLE NOTICE. When you turn the other cheek, you know you've done the right thing. You may not hear praise, there may be no standing ovation, but people do notice. Eventually, their respect for you and their appreciation of the game will grow.

8. BE GENEROUS WITH PRAISE.

Compliment an opponent on her good catch. Remark to a teammate that you admire their honesty in calling themselves out of bounds. Look players in the eye and congratulate them when you shake their hands after a game. These small acts boost spirit greatly, a large payoff for little time and effort.

9. IMPRESSIONS LINGER.

Not only does the realization that your actions will be remembered for a long time serve to curb poor behavior, it can also inspire better conduct. Many old-timers enjoy the experience of meeting an elite player who remembers their first rendezvous on the field and recalls the event in detail. A good first encounter with an impressionable young player can have considerable long term positive impact.

10. HAVE FUN.

All other things being equal, games are far more fun without the antipathy. Go hard. Play fair. Have fun.

Special thanks to Eric Zaslow and members of the 2005 Conduct Committee (Jeff Dunbar, Kate Bergeron, Eric Zaslow, Will Deaver) for the development of this document. Adopted by USA Ultimate Executive Committee, March 29, 2005.

SPIRIT CIRCLES

Spirit Circles are an idea borrowed from international competitions throughout the ultimate world. For years, American teams have traveled to world championship events where they have not only done exceptionally well in each competition, but showed the international community the importance we place on respect for the game and their opponents. But American players have also learned a lot from competing against teams from other countries, and invariably one of the most positive parts of the international experience has been the tradition of the post-game spirit circle. While there are a number of ways to do this, here are some quick tips to get your team started:

- Following each game, rather than lining up to slap hands, the two teams gather into a circle, alternating players on each team, facing inward, with arms around the shoulders of the person next to you.
- One or two people (often team captains or spirit captains) on each team will talk briefly about the game. Usually the losing team goes first, then the winning team.
- Things to talk about can include how the game went, how your own team played, what the other team did well, who on the other team played well, and anything else that might be worth communicating...even if it's something you think could be done better (and don't forget to look in the mirror on this).
- After each team has had a chance to talk, the winning team takes a step into the circle and walks around counter-clockwise to slap hands with the players on the other team.

That's it! It's pretty simple and definitely an experience that brings teams together and puts the game and the experience in perspective. It's all about respect for each other and the experience of bringing out the best in each other through competition. It's also about building relationships and seeing opponents for what they really are: part of the same community that loves ultimate. Please note that this is not meant to replace other post-game traditions you may have (e.g., cheers, games, photos, gifts or trading gear). Good luck, and please let USA Ultimate staff and other event organizers how it goes!
