Noisemaker Guidelines

The following guidelines for noisemakers will be applied at USA Ultimate events. They are designed to strike a balance between limiting artificial noise that adversely impacts the competition or the on-site experience of participants with allowing for noise that helps create an enthusiastic, fun and supportive environment. Players, teams and spectators are expected to abide by these guidelines while on site at the event.

- Powered noisemakers are not allowed at the event site. This includes, but is not limited to, air horns, sirens and electronic bullhorns.
- Novelty noisemakers are NOT permitted, except under the following conditions:
  - Must remain outside of the equipment lines.
  - May only be used between a goal being scored and the offense signaling readiness for the next point.
  - May not be used during timeouts taken during active play.
  - Novelty noisemakers include, but are not limited to, whistles, vuvuzelas, squeeze horns and musical instruments.
- Music-playing devices with external speakers are permitted under the following conditions:
  - Must remain outside of equipment lines, except during warm-ups and half-time.
  - Must remain at a reasonable volume considering other event participants and attendees.
  - May not be used to play music with offensive lyrics or themes.
- No noisemaker of any kind is permitted that may present a safety hazard.
- Any noisemaker permitted above may be disallowed if the volume or content of the noise is deemed to be offensive or disruptive to the enjoyment of the event, or the noisemaker is used in an un-spirited manner such as to taunt, intimidate or give a team an undue competitive advantage, as determined by event staff.

Event staff and observers will inform teams and individuals of these guidelines as needed. Repercussions for violation of these guidelines may include confiscation of the noisemaker, removal of the individual from the event site and/or in-game sanctions associated with the Misconduct System.

Ultimate in 10 Simple Rules

1. The Field: A rectangular shape with end zones at each end. A regulation field is 70 yards by 40 yards, with end zones 25 yards deep.

2. Initiate Play: Each point begins with both teams lining up on the front of their respective end zone line. The defense throws ("pulls") the disc to the offense. A regulation game has seven players per team.

3. Scoring: Each time the offense completes a pass in the defense’s end zone, the offense scores a point. Play is initiated after each score.

4. Movement of the Disc: The disc may be advanced in any direction by completing a pass to a teammate. Players may not run with the disc. The person with the disc ("thrower") has ten seconds to throw the disc. The defender guarding the thrower ("marker") counts out the stall count.

5. Change of Possession: When a pass in not completed (e.g. out of bounds, drop, block, interception), the defense immediately takes possession of the disc and becomes the offense.

6. Substitutions: Players not in the game may replace players in the game after a score and during an injury timeout.

7. Non-contact: No physical contact is allowed between players. Picks and screens are also prohibited. A foul occurs when contact is made.

8. Fouls: When a player initiates contact on another player, a foul occurs. When a foul disrupts possession, the play resumes as if the possession was retained. If the player committing the foul disagrees with the foul call, the play is redone.

9. Self-Officiating: Players are responsible for their own foul and line calls. Players resolve their own disputes.

10. Spirit of the Game: Ultimate stresses sportsmanship and fair play. Competitive play is encouraged, but never at the expense of respect between players, adherence to the rules and the basic joy of play.
Aggressively Mediocre is mostly straight out of the 757. Aggressively Mediocre is not a phase we’re going through, it’s a lifestyle, and you wouldn’t understand. It is every part of our life: ultimate, work, friends and family. Being a part of Aggressively Mediocre is not a conscious choice, it chooses you. Later on, after years of acclimating to a culture of aggressive mediocrity, you begin to realize that even though you were chosen, you always knew that deep down it was where you belonged. Eric, our fearless leader, gathered us under his wing and mentored us in the ways of playing with aggression. What he didn’t know was how mediocre we were. If you play us now, then look out, because we’re coming after you in an Aggressively Mediocre way.

FLUDWHALE

RICHMOND, VA
Captains: Justin Morrison, Geoff Horsfield @RVAopen

The sea was angry that day my friends - like an old man trying to send back soup in a deli. I got about fifty feet out when, suddenly, the great beast appeared before me. I tell you he was 10 stories high if he was a foot. As if sensing my presence, he let out a great bellow. I said, “Easy, big fella!” And then, as I watched him struggling, I realized that something was obstructing its breathing. From where I was standing, I could see directly into the eye of the great fish. Well then, from out of nowhere, a huge tidal wave lifted me, tossed me like a cork and I found myself right on top of him, face to face with the blowhole.

HUMILISWAG

FT. LAUDERDALE, FL
Captains: Elliot Trotter, Nick Simonelli @humiliswag

Humiliswag is a team formed from the love of beach ultimate, traveling, training and brotherhood. Formerly out of the Mid-Atlantic, we recently chased the sun into the Southeast Region. We believe in living it, clean eating, cold ocean dips, sandy shuttles and chasing peak performance. We believe in proper sun protection and functional gear. Spirit. Humility. Unity. Ebb and flow. Zen/Jam continuum. We are too serious. What is fun?

Midrift

IOWA CITY, IA

Captains: Jimmy Wiesbrock, Steve Czechowski
@MidRiftUltimate

The Midcontinent Rift System (MidRift) is a geological rift in the center of the North American continent. Some say it is the center of the universe. Some aren’t as opinionated as we are. It formed when the continent’s core began to split apart about 1.1 billion years ago. Unknown to the coastal areas of our continent, it is a lot of pressure to be the core of a continent, providing for your outer compatriots like a heart to a useless limb. The rift failed, however. The core was too strong. The failed rift left behind thick layers of exposed rock like scars from a booboo. The failed rift serves as a constant reminder of the burden coastal areas have on our nation’s core. The constant pulling. The whining. We reenact that battle each year in Virginia Beach: the attempt from the coasts to destroy the core and, of course, their inevitable failure.

As long as anyone can remember, the Tusken Raiders have lived nomadic lives in the desert wastes of Missouri and beyond. Like their culture, the Tusken Raiders’ behavior is largely a mystery. Largely a scavenging people, they are highly motivated by finding round, flat treasures, and a successful raid will often be followed by their distinctive battle cry, “Ort! Ort! Ort!” Their diet consists primarily of fresh squeezed citrus and fermented sugars. Though the Tusken Raiders are known to be formidable warriors across the galaxy, they are easily startled. Even so, they have a penchant for soon returning, often in greater numbers. Should one come across one of this noble race, approach cautiously and offer libations as an initial greeting. This will ensure their good graces and inevitably lead to a Bantha ride into the sunset.
90S BABIES

Captains: Ryan Gorman, Brittany Winner

@beachboatulty

With a core of Cincinnati Steamboat’s club mixed players at the helm, Beachboat is excited to make another return trip to the shores of the Atlantic. Steamboat was formed in 2008 and is the Great Lakes region’s longest-running mixed program. Over the years, shipmates have travelled extensively to play grass tournaments around the world, but in 2011, eager to test out our sea legs, we navigated uncharted waters as Batello a Vapore to the harbors of Paganello and docked there again in 2012. Now, with some new crew on board, we’re hoisting anchor and setting course to Virginia Beach to compete together on American sand at our fourth Beach Championships in May 2018. This comes after three successful seasons for the program where we’ve finished higher at the USA Ultimate Beach Championships each year (2015 - T-11th, 2016 - 7th, 2017 - 5th)!
Big Fish

Woods Hole, MA
Captains: Brian Sauro, Sarah Tulin

Big Fish has played at Beach Championships every year since the beginning. This year, we brought teams in two divisions, both mixed and mixed masters. The players come from around the Northeast, united by a love of beach ultimate and a connection, however tenuous, to the Woods Hole Ultimate Club and their long-standing summer ultimate scene on the beautiful beaches of Old Silver Beach.

Long Beach Legacy is a team that has its beginnings in a competitive weekly beach pickup at Belmont Shore in Long Beach. Over the last few years, the team has had success in high-level west coast tournaments such as Beach Westerns and the U.S. Beach Open. The team decided that it was finally time to make a Nationals run!

NO TSU OH
HOUSTON, TX
Captains: Katey Forth, Doug Richardson, Max Grove

This latest iteration of No Tsu Oh has been around since 2015. After a hiatus from the beach, it re-formed in a quest to compete for a title at Beach Championships. Based out of Texas, No Tsu Oh thrives on the ideals of respecting your opponents, respect for your teammates, love of orange crushes and oversized cubes. It’s not hard to have a good time with your toes in the sand.

Harrisonburg and Charlottesville. We pride ourselves on annual competitive Mid-Atlantic regional finishes and are known to be fair, helpful and additive in the direction and development of USA Ultimate along with youth participation and league growth in our communities. Although we may not have the terrain for beach ultimate in our immediate backyards, we are advocates for this division of our beloved sport, and we hope to be able to add experience at this beach tournament in our home state. In doing so, we aim to help create grassroots growth toward a strong central Virginia Beach ultimate presence in the future. SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS.

ZOMG ZERG RUSH

BOSTON, MA
Captains: Michael Miller, Chris Zybert
https://elgoog.im/zergrush/

Zerg Rush: A common strategy where one player mass-builds as many weak units as he can, then rushes the enemy base. This usually works best early in the game. This was taken from Starcraft, where zerglings, really cheap units that can quickly be built in large droves, would be sent at the start of the game to defeat everyone in the first couple moments.

@VARebellion

Just a bunch of ladies trying to get filthy rich by toeing the line with some nasty bids. Our squad from Richmond is here to win some games with some dirty layouts (our whites are more like browns). We throw some money hammers to the back corners of the end zones and drop dimes to our deep cutters. We take all of this to the bank, and just like our marks, we know how to get around. We’re not just wolves on Wall Street though; we’re lions in the lane and Zazu in the air. We got pride, and we’ll take you on a circle of life.

PLAYA FIASCO

FT. LAUDERDALE, FL
Captains: Larissa Ferreira, Gabby Sehres, Stacy Werse
fiascoultimate.com
@FiascoUltimate

Fiasco Ultimate was first formed as a women’s club team last year (2017). The general consensus of the team was to have fun, be spirited, dance A LOT and still bring a level of strong competition to the table. Before starting the grass season, the group sent two teams to the 2017 Saint Augustine Ancient City Beach Tournament to play together for the first time - we took home second and third place, feeling pumped about what we’d only just begun. Being based in South Florida, the team also had easy access to the beach, so Fiasco hosted a number of beach hatters and ran a winter beach league to raise money for the summer season. The main focus of Fiasco is to compete as a club women’s team at sanctioned grass tournaments, though any opportunity to play on the beach is always capitalized on.

The Porcupineapples are a group of motivated pineapple lovers from the (much) greater Boston area. We primarily play on VICE together, a club women’s team out of Boston, and we’ve added a few faraway friends to our roster for Beach Champs. We represent a range of careers from recent college grad to inventor of the internet. When we are together, we love playing ultimate, eating pineapple and aggressively petting porcupines.
ROCKFORD BEACHES

MADISON WI
Captains: Robyn Wiseman, Becky LeDonne
Coach: Jimmy Dugan
@RockfordBeaches

The Rockford Beaches are a women’s professional beach team with a storied history. The four-time champion Beaches originally competed in all 12 years of the All-American Girls Professional Beach League. After a short hiatus, the Beaches donned their uniforms again in every season since the inaugural USAU Beach Championships. We’re hungry to bring another pennant to the Upper Midwest.

Despite the recent retirement of Dottie Hinson, “All-the-Way” Mae Mordabito and Marla Hooch, this ragtag crew of Midwestern swingers will dazzle you with their heavy hitting and curveballs. Although we still throw home on a two-run lead and can’t lay off the high ones, we absolutely know “there’s no crying in ultimate!”

We’re the members of the All-American League. We come from cities near and far. We’ve got Madisonians, Midwest ones and French. We’re all for one, we’re one for all, and we’re all American!

DURHAM, NC

@NCsandcats

We are a North Carolina-based team composed of ladies who love going to the beach and laying out in the sun. Many of us play on the women’s team Phoenix or mixed team Toro during the club season, and we’re excited about playing together in this year’s Beach Championships!

Throwtorious is a team based primarily out of D.C., with a smattering of women from the surrounding areas. Many of the women on the team are competitors in the club season, so Throwtorious is a great opportunity to get together to build friendships with players that cross paths on opposite sides of the field all season through bonding over the great motivator that is RBG! Many of the players also join forces to run other events such as “6 Months until Wildwood,” a layout clinic, as well as other learning opportunities.

BIG FISH

HAILFAX, NS

Captains: Alex Nelson, Sam Harvey

This team came together from a few teammates who met at the 2017 World Championships of Beach Ultimate and brought their hometown teams together to join forces on the sand. With players from Saskatchewan, Ontario and Halifax, this team has put some serious miles in to play at this tournament.

Big Fish has been at Beach Championships every year since it started, and has competed in both the mixed masters and mixed divisions before. This year we brought two teams, one in each division! The mixed masters team combines experience, a youthful spirit and pure Nova Scotian grit and plans to bring it all to the beach!

CHARGE!

JENNIEVILLE, MD

Captains: Rod Hannon, Trish Hannon

CHARGE! was formed 16 years ago to give a group of long-standing coed teammates a reason to play in the sand. It was a welcome change to take off our cleats, soak up some sun and enjoy competitive disc in a new way. Several players on the squad now only appear on the horizon when beach ultimate is on the menu, preferring to never layout on turf again.

Our roster has changed somewhat over the years, but the core members and spirit of CHARGE! still remain strong. Carefully crafted, like your favorite cocktail, Charge! is assembled each year with equal parts of talent and friendship. We pride ourselves on high-spirited, competitive play; we happily heckle our own players as a means of team discipline. We encourage this spirit of play in our opponents as well, ending each game with a ceremony that recognizes the standout players on the opposing squad.
FUSTER
CHARLESTON, WV
Captains: Scott Fields, Brandon Hudnall

Fuster Ultimate was “hatched” in June 2013 at Poultry Days. Our team base is in the capital city of Charleston, W. Va. and our players hail from all over the Mountain State. We are an active, adventurous, quasi-diverse flock who all have past or present ties to the hills of West Virginia. We have recently kidnapped a few friends from North Carolina who share our love for winning parties at fun tournaments and occasionally winning ultimate games. Our goal is to display our trademark, friendly Appalachian avian spirit everywhere we compete. You may not know us by sight, but you will recognize the battle cry of our mascot, the fighting chicken. Late at night, locals claim to hear the famed CLUCK of the Fuster team. Kah ka kah! Kah ka kah!

LOOSE SEAL
MINNEAPOLIS, MN
Captains: Graham Brayshaw, Tony Michaelson

Loose Seal is a conglomeration of mixed and women’s players that is the embodiment of the Midwest desire to play beach ultimate. Minnesota has an amazing amount of shoreline and an amazing lack of sand, so we all agreed to meet up in Virginia Beach. Loose Seal is an older alumni team of sorts, made up of players from the similarly named team that barely took down the Throwback title of this year, just with less cheetah youth and a surlier attitude.

Max Power has been competing in the Toronto leagues since 2010, and occasionally ventures out to play in the best tournaments around the world. One time, we went on a bit of a bender and ended up finishing second at Canadian Nationals.

2018 is the inaugural year for Old Money as a mixed masters team. The team was formed by former club players who have aged into the masters division and are still looking for competitive play. Based out of Charlotte, N.C., many of our players are transplants from other cities who have grown roots in Charlotte and have been playing together locally for a number of years. We will be competing in the beach and masters divisions throughout the year.
OVER THE HILL

WASHINGTON, D.C.
Captains: Jeff Hale, Samantha McClellan

We’re a group of experienced ultimate players back for more fun this year. Many of us are from the D.C. area, and several are from Arizona and elsewhere in the western U.S. Team members have moved in and out of the team over the past several years. Everyone has played with at least one other Over the Hill teammate on another team, but Over the Hill only exists for the mixed masters division at the Beach Championships every year. We’re excited to be playing at Virginia Beach again in 2018.

SECOND HAND AERIAL MASTERS

WASHINGTON, D.C.
Captains: Justin Kratz, Stacey Spencer
@UltimateSHAM

Second Hand Aerial Masters (SHAM) is a mix of friends from the Greater D.C., Baltimore and Philadelphia Region. Everyone has either played with or against one another in multiple club, college, masters, beach or rec leagues over all of our long and storied careers. As we have been cast off to the masters division like a donation to a second-hand store, we are here to show that mixed masters isn’t a fake, and we can bring high-level play, high-level spirit and high-level entertainment to the Beach Championships!

SHOSTAKOVICH

BROOKLYN, NY
Captains: Kim Tischler, Pete Gilchrist

Shostakovitch (and the Angry Buddha) is delighted to be returning to the fourth-ever USAU Beach Championships, where the mixed masters division started! Originally founded nearly a decade ago to fulfill Taylor Richey’s dream of winning the Ow, My Knee tournament in Albany (goal yet to be accomplished — perhaps at the 34th annual this summer), Shostakovitch draws players from a wide spectrum of club teams. Our unifying (if sometimes tenuous) connection is to pick up in Prospect Park, Brooklyn, a game dating back to the early 1990s that fosters competition from the high school through great grand masters ages. While our Angry Buddha has retired (at least for now), we look forward to channeling his admirable blend of intense competitiveness and embodiment of the spirit of the game to Virginia Beach.
Ye Olde Boxcar

Raleigh, NC

Captains: Michelle Pearson, Danny Marlow

Ye Olde Boxcar started as a few players from the mixed club team named Boxcar (go figure) started to get old. Boxcar has a tradition of inviting friends to play with them at select tournaments. Since we couldn’t field a full team of old folks, this was the perfect time to join together with friends again! To the Boxcar core, we added old college buddies and new tournament friends. Each year, we’ve managed to gather a team of folks who’ve never played together before to maintain a healthy challenge for field chemistry and keep our brains young. Watch out - if we like you, we’re going to try and recruit you!

Swamp Rats

The Great Dismal Swamp, NC

Captains: Ben Dieter, Sara Dieter

In 2015, the Swamp Rats first emerged from the Great Dismal Swamp in North Carolina and scampered their way north to the soft sands of Virginia Beach. They found that the temperate climate, as well as the camaraderie of the mixed masters division, suited them. Now, each spring, the Rats make the migration north, and each year, new Rats from around the country join the pack to contend for a championship. Despite the new faces and the new year, the team ethos remains the same: Keep it grimy, keep it dismal.
BLAZING SANDALS

LAKELAND, FL
Captain: Tony Christian

Playing in their second year on the beach, Blazing Sandals is looking to improve on their inaugural appearance. With several returning Sandals and a few new additions, Blazing Sandals will be looking to blaze through the competition this year with the focus on playing with spirit and the aim to be playing late on Sunday! Caution to the rest of the field - although our Sandals may be Blazing, our beverages are always chilled!

SPECTATOR INFO

BORDERLINE

YARMOUTH, ME
Captain: Dan McConville

Borderline is an open masters and grand masters club team from the Atlantic Region (Ultimate Canada) / Northeast Region (USA Ultimate) that was conceived in 2011 by a collection of Canadian Maritime and Maine players. The original core group played on various open and mixed teams and developed friendships over the decades from competing against one another. Initially, Borderline competed as an open masters team. As an open masters team, we competed in the USAU Club Series in 2011-2013, earning a bid to U.S. Open Club Championships in 2013. In 2014 and 2015, we focused on the masters division of the Canadian Ultimate Championship, winning Canadian Nationals in 2014 in the open masters division. The team grew rapidly as new players came of age, and in 2016 we formed a grand masters team. This will be our third time playing at the U.S. Beach Championships.

 Grave Error is the result of all the other team’s poor personnel decisions. We are the fodder, the chaff, the slivers of greatness you left on the cutting room floor while forming your perfect rosters. These forgotten souls have gathered together with one goal in mind - to seek redemption by burying the competition in this sandy graveyard. The signs will be subtle. When it feels like a hand is reaching out of the sand as you slip and faceplant, know that it is our hand. When the wind pops that disc up into your face instead of your fingers, know that it is our collective breath. Lastly, when a hand pats you on the back in that particularly sunburnt spot, well, that will be us too, congratulating you on a great game and reminding you of your Grave Error.

OLD LINE

COCKEYSVILLE, MD
Captain: David Ritchie

Old Line takes its name from the nickname George Washington bestowed upon the state of Maryland, i.e., the Old Line state. The nickname, a compliment to Maryland’s dependable and seasoned troops, was a reference to how they stood strong in the face of insurmountable odds. Like those seasoned troops of our past, the Old Line team will stand strong, battling through surf and sand to conquer its opponents! Or it’s just the obvious reference to our extreme age. One of those two.

Sandblast is essentially a melting pot of former teammates and foes from the Midwest. The sands of time have passed, but we have come together to compete again as Sandblast. Sandblasting is “the operation of forcibly propelling a stream of abrasive material against a surface under high pressure to smooth a rough surface." Some of our players are abrasive material, some are a stream of high pressure and some have just been worn down.
Scrapheap

Pittsburgh, PA

Captain: Mark Worley

Scrapheap comprises the discarded remnants of the Steel City’s past club teams and players with whom we have developed friendships over the years. This is its first year in the grand masters division at the USA Ultimate Beach Championships.

Scrapapple

Philadelphia, PA

Captain: Bill Maroon, Rich Hart

Scrapapple - scraps of meat left over from butchering, not used or sold elsewhere, were made into Scrapple to avoid waste. These scraps of meat are usually unwanted or undesirable in any other form, so they are thrown together to form Scrapple. It is best known as a rural American food of the Mid-Atlantic states (Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Virginia). Scrapple is found in supermarkets throughout the region in both fresh and frozen refrigerated cases.

This definition also describes a grand masters ultimate team from the Mid-Atlantic states.
Sol Draft is making its fourth consecutive USA Ultimate Beach Championships appearance. The solar winds lift the old worn and beaten warrior bodies high into the sky, and thermal drafts raise them aloft over all domains. Or, could it be just an anagram for who they really are: a ragtag group of players from the South and Regions beyond, comprised of world champions, club elites and dreamers of days gone by. Sol Draft!

#LIVEULTIMATE
Ultimate has traditionally relied upon the spirit of sportsmanship, which places the responsibility for fair play on the player. Highly competitive play is encouraged, but never at the expense of mutual respect among competitors, adherence to the agreed upon rules of the game, or the basic joy of play. — 11th Edition USA Ultimate Rules of Ultimate.

10 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT SPIRIT OF THE GAME™

1. THE GOLDEN RULE: TREAT OTHERS AS YOU WOULD WANT TO BE TREATED.
Spirited games result from mutual respect among opponents. Assume the best of your opponent. Give him or her the benefit of a doubt. You would want the same for yourself. But if you are thick-skinned, do not assume that your opponent is. Maybe you should think of this rule as, “treat others as you would have them treat your mother.”

2. CONTROL: SOTG TAKES REAL EFFORT.
SOTG is not just some abstract principle that everyone adopts and then games run smoothly without effort. Close calls are made in tight games. Hard fouls are committed. SOTG is about how you handle yourself under pressure: how you contain your emotionality, tame your temper, and modulate your voice. If you initiate or contribute to the unraveling of spirit, the concept falls apart quickly. If you act to mend things (or at least not exacerbate the situation) by following (1) above, the game heals itself.

3. HECKLING AND TAUNTING ARE DIFFERENT.
Ultimate has a long tradition of good-natured heckling. Heckles are friendly barbs, typically from non-playing spectators. Heckling can be fun, but taunting is unspirited and wrong. Harassing remarks after an opponent’s foul call or close play are NOT heckling: they are abusive taunts which create unpleasant playing conditions and often escalate to acrimonious disputes.

4. SOTG IS COMPATIBLE WITH CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY.
It is a fallacy to argue that the stakes are so important that some aspect of SOTG can be cast aside. Time and again, great teams and star players have shown that you can bring all your competitive and athletic zeal to a game without sacrificing fair play or respect for your opponent.

5. DON’T “GIVE AS YOU GOT.”
There is no “eye for an eye.” If you are wronged, you have no right to wrong someone in return. In the extreme case where you were severely mistreated, you may bring the issue up with a captain, tournament director, or even lodge a complaint with the governing body. If you retaliate in kind, however, a complaint may be filed against you. We recall point (1): treat others as you would have them treat you, not as they have treated you. In the end, you are responsible for you.
6. BREATHE.

After a hard foul, close call, or disputed play, take a step back, pause, and take a deep breath. In the heat of competition, emotions run high. By giving yourself just a bit of time and space, you will gain enough perspective to compose yourself and concentrate on the facts involved in the dispute (was she in or out; did you hit his hand or the disc; did that pick affect the play). Your restraint will induce a more restrained response from your opponent. Conflagration averted, you may resume business as usual.

7. WHEN YOU DO THE RIGHT THING, PEOPLE NOTICE.

When you turn the other cheek, you know you’ve done the right thing. You may not hear praise, there may be no standing ovation, but people do notice. Eventually, their respect for you and their appreciation of the game will grow.

8. BE GENEROUS WITH PRAISE.

Compliment an opponent on his/her good catch. Remark to a teammate that you admire their honesty in calling themselves out of bounds. Look players in the eye and congratulate them when you shake their hands after a game. These small acts boost spirit greatly, a large payoff for little time and effort.

9. IMPRESSIONS LINGER.

Not only does the realization that your actions will be remembered for a long time serve to curb poor behavior, it can also inspire better conduct. Many old-timers enjoy the experience of meeting an elite player who remembers their first rendezvous on the field and recalls the event in detail. A good first encounter with an impressionable young player can have considerable long term positive impact.

10. HAVE FUN.

All other things being equal, games are far more fun without the antipathy. Go hard. Play fair. Have fun.
Spirit Circles

Spirit circles are an idea borrowed from international competitions throughout the ultimate world. For years, American teams have traveled to world championship events where they have not only done exceptionally well in each competition, but showed the international community the importance we place on respect for the game and their opponents. But American players have also learned a lot from competing against teams from other countries, and invariably one of the most positive parts of the international experience has been the tradition of the post-game spirit circles. While there are a number of ways to do this, here are some quick tips to get your team started:

- Following each game, rather than lining up to slap hands, the two teams gather into a circle, alternating players on each team, facing inward, with arms around the shoulders of the person next to you.

- One or two people (often team captains) on each team will talk briefly about the game. Usually the losing team goes first, then the winning team.

- Things to talk about can include how the game went, how your own team played, what the other team did well, who on the other team played well and anything else that might be worth communicating, even if it's something you think could be done better (and don’t forget to look in the mirror on this).

- After each team has had a chance to talk, the winning team takes a step into the circle and walks around counter-clockwise to slap hands with the players on the other team.

That’s it! It’s pretty simple and definitely something that brings teams together and puts the game and the experience in perspective. It’s all about respect for each other and the experience of bringing out the best in each other through competition. It’s also about building relationships and seeing opponents for what they really are: part of the same community that loves ultimate. Please note that this is not required and is not meant to replace other post-game traditions you may have (e.g., cheers, games, photos, gifts or trading gear). Good luck, and please let USA Ultimate staff and other event organizers know how it goes!
Medical staff, including athletic trainers, will be on site at Tournament Central to treat injuries, handle emergencies and provide some preventative care. The event will provide standard athletic tape, pre-wrap, ice and some bandages. Other supplies, including special tape or bandages and anti-inflammatory drugs, must be provided by teams or may be charged by the training staff.

If there is an injury on a field that needs medical attention, inform a field marshal, and he or she will radio to the trainers.

If you have medical issues that require attention in the morning before play, please show up early to avoid long lines. The trainers will be at the fields two hours prior to game time each day.

CONCUSSIONS

EDUCATION

- USA Ultimate recommends the CDC “Heads Up Safety” program, a free one-hour online training: cdc.gov/concussion/headsup/youth.html.
- USA Ultimate’s participant waiver includes important information from the CDC regarding concussion safety: usaultimate.org/membership/usa_ultimate_membership_forms.aspx

COACHING REQUIREMENTS

- Coaches at USA Ultimate events are required to have completed a concussion awareness and safety recognition program (like the CDC program above or other local or state-recommended course). Coaches should not submit records of course completion to USA Ultimate, but should maintain records on-site while coaching.

REMOVAL & RETURN TO PLAY

- All guidelines identified by the CDC must be strictly followed in the event of a suspected concussion.
  1. Remove the athlete from play.
  2. Ensure the athlete is evaluated by a health care professional trained in concussion diagnosis and management. Do not try to judge the seriousness of the injury yourself.
  3. If the athlete is a minor, inform the athlete’s parents or guardians about the known or possible concussion and give them the fact sheet on concussions.
  4. Allow the athlete to return to play only with permission from an appropriate health care professional.

DOCTOR’S NOTE REQUIREMENT

- If, during a USA Ultimate event, an athlete receives care at a hospital, medical clinic or doctor’s office, or is referred to a hospital or doctor by event medical staff, the athlete is barred from further competition in that event until he or she provides a doctor’s note, on letterhead or prescription pad, to event medical staff stating that the athlete is authorized to return to competition.
ATHLETE PROTECTION

- USA Ultimate takes the protection of event participants seriously. In accordance with SafeSport and the USA Ultimate Conduct Policy, all USA Ultimate employees, volunteers, athletes, members, coaches and chaperones are prohibited from engaging in the following conduct with athletes at any time (a more thorough description is available at www.usaultimate.org/protection):
  - Bullying
  - Hazing
  - Harassment, including Sexual Harassment
  - Emotional Misconduct
  - Physical Misconduct
  - Sexual Misconduct, including Child Sexual Abuse

- With the passage of the recent federal legislation to protect amateur and minor athletes, all SafeSport trained individuals (including coaches, team support, USA Ultimate staff) are now mandatory reporters.

- If you have questions or would like to file a complaint with USA Ultimate, please contact Dan Raabe at dan@hq.usaultimate.org.

HEAT, NUTRITION AND HYDRATION

- Heat-related illnesses occur when the body’s ability to cool itself by evaporation is limited. Sweating depletes the body’s salt and moisture, which leads to dehydration. If a player recognizes any signs or symptoms of a heat-related illness, he or she should treat the problem immediately.

- Signs and symptoms of a heat illness can include changes in level of consciousness, abdominal cramps, nausea/vomiting, fatigue/tingling, chills, inability to spit, dry mucous membranes, decreased output and change in color of urine.

PREVENTION AND TREATMENT OF A HEAT ILLNESS

- Avoid alcohol, caffeine and carbonated beverages.

- Medications such as antihistamines, decongestants, certain asthma medications and diuretics can increase the risk for heat illness. Avoid them if possible.

- Avoid certain nutritional supplements (such as caffeine and ephedrine) that can dehydrate the body and/or increase metabolism and heat production.

- Know your body – be honest! Are you fit enough to perform under current conditions?

- Eat and drink (water AND sports drinks) optimally before, during and after play. Potassium is important; good sources include sports drinks, yogurt, grapefruit juice, bananas and oranges. Sodium is also important; good sources include sports drinks, vegetable juices, pretzels, nuts, cheese and crackers. After play, carbohydrates are important: foods such as potatoes, honey, cereal, white bread, corn chips, sports drinks, jelly beans, rice cakes, bagels, crackers and gummy candies.

- Don’t drink too much. Over-hydrating can be dangerous if it leads to a fluid and electrolyte imbalance.

- Be sensitive to any prior illness. If you’ve been sick, your body may be more susceptible to dehydration.

- Rest and cool down after play. Find shade, wet the skin or get in front of a fan or breeze.
SIDELINE SAFETY

- Spectators and equipment must stay at least five yards away from the sidelines. Where there are buffer lines, respect them. Chairs, coolers, strollers, people and other objects must be at least three yards from the sidelines.

- If a player believes that an object on the sideline is not safe, he or she should inform event staff and refrain from playing until he or she is satisfied that safe conditions have been established.

- USA Ultimate and event staff reserve the right to move or remove objects or spectators from on or near the playing field if those conditions are, in the opinion of USA Ultimate or event staff, unsafe for players, staff or spectators.

LIGHTNING GUIDELINES

- Event staff will communicate with players and spectators via a PA system and through field marshals equipped with radios if there is a lightning danger. Play will then be stopped, and everyone should seek shelter.

- Safe shelter for players and spectators at the field site includes any fully enclosed building or vehicle with a hard top and closed windows.

- Event staff will be monitoring radar and listening for thunder. If lightning is occurring within 10 miles or thunder is audible, play will be suspended and all individuals should get in a safe shelter location.

- If you can’t get to a safe shelter, try to avoid being the tallest object in an open field or on open water. Avoid other tall objects, metal objects and water. Assume a crouched position with only the balls of your feet touching the ground, your arms wrapped around your knees, and your head lowered. Minimize contact with the ground. Do not lie flat.

- Avoid using telephone land lines. Cell phones are safe, provided the person has followed other safety guidelines.

- Event staff will indicate to players when play is going to resume. Team captains should meet at Tournament Central to receive instructions for resuming play and any schedule modifications.
